

	I commit to:	I will fulfil this by:
1	Providing visible and proactive leadership to improve D&I in my organisation	 Personally, contributing to, attending, and supporting D&I initiatives and events for W&R. Providing content when appropriate. Demonstrate active allyship by supporting the D&I Steering Group (DSG) and employee network groups, and championing for under-represented groups.
2	Taking D&I seriously at the highest level	 Supporting D&I as a standing agenda item at board/partnership meetings Ensuring D&I remains in my organisation's corporate strategy, business plans and budgets. Ensuring the D&I Partner role continues to be represented at senior level. Encourage senior colleagues to provide visible and proactive leadership on D&I – seek out and value diversity in their teams.
3	Embedding and valuing D&I throughout the organisational culture	 Including and supporting D&I-related topics on the agendas of internal events such as for new starter induction (added to new induction program HR/D&I Specialist), would-be partner training and staff awaydays.

		 Encouraging and allowing time for staff to work on D&I-related projects and training (Networks, webinars, drop-in sessions). Creating a culture that allows all colleagues to be authentic and genuine, feel safe and supported, to be open and honest, and celebrate diversity (Supporting shared stories, embedded through Values training, D&I SharePoint pages)
4	Building trust and safe spaces throughout the organisation	 Leading by example in sharing my own identity and experiences Promote and celebrate diversity by utilising and enabling our Wellbeing Ambassadors/Networks to provide psychologically safe spaces to speak outside their line manager, should they wish. Recognising and rewarding exemplary behaviour through Values recognition and beyond. Showing appreciation to employees in steering groups and actively seeking and valuing feedback and ideas. (Values nominations, Shoutouts, performance and one to one review, FutureCom etc) Adapting my management style with a people centric/inclusive management approach
5	Educating myself and my colleagues about D&I issues	 A personal commitment to enhance my knowledge (Adding myself to the Pledge Prattle group, attending IP Inclusive events, sign up to Inclusive Employers webinars, utilising D&I-page resources etc) Supporting D&I-related awareness dates (e.g. LGBTQ+ History Month, Black History Month, International Women's

6	Sharing my privileges	Day) added to organisation's internal calendar and encouraging staff to learn about and mark those dates - Supporting the introduction and implementation of D&I modules to the L&D academy (Started through mandatory induction modules and Values training) - Signposting my teams to available resources - Where feasible, adopting the IP Inclusive guidelines on recruiting for social mobility¹ and on improving social mobility and access to the IP professions² - Seek to learn from more junior professionals and professionals in under-represented groups. - Ensuring W&R Sign up for IP Inclusive Careers in Ideas
7	Insisting on equity	 Recognising that colleagues will have different needs and ensuring that our organisation is adaptable to promote the success of the company. Adopt initiatives to improve diversity of under-represented groups
8	Working closely with HR and/or management colleagues to achieve this	 Involving HR personnel/DSG in board/partnership level decision making on D&I-impacting issues Encouraging involvement of board/partnership level colleagues in HR communications, conversations, and projects.

¹ See https://ipinclusive.org.uk/resources/recruiting-for-social-mobility/
² See https://ipinclusive.org.uk/resources/steps-to-improve-social-mobility-and-access-to-the-ip-professions/

 Giving them the mandate to effect D&I-related changes in the organisation, and providing visible and proactive support for their work Ensuring that D&I is an important consideration when communicating with all colleagues and clients.